Physical literacy for all

“I arrived demotivated with low expectations.
I leave with a very powerful tool to change the way
PE in Secondary and Primary is delivered”

Becky, PE Teacher & School Sport Coordinator

Very positive experience with clear direction showing progress within PE for all the fundamental skills...
A fantastic and worthwhile experience giving me instant skills to employ in my lessons.

James, Secondary PE Teacher

Course Overview

This interactive, practical workshop explores how important it is that Secondary aged pupils have the Fundamental Movement Skills (FMS) to maximise their physical potential and confidence in PE and Sport and provides Secondary practitioners with a comprehensive and progressive package of physical challenges that reinforce and embed the required FMS. It highlights both the importance of FMS as the building blocks that underpin the ability to play and be involved in many different sports and activities and explains how performance be improved even among the most able by revisiting and improving their FMS.
